Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

Davey and Goliath, the stop-motion animation series for children, first aired on broadcast television in 1960. This series was created by the Lutheran Church in America, a predecessor church body of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), and Art and Ruth Clokey, well-known animators of Gumby and Pokey. The show focused on Davey Hansen and his talking dog, Goliath, who acts as Davey's conscience.

The story lines carried uplifting, moral lessons on such topics as responsibility, the environment, acceptance of all people, and other valuable lessons designed to affirm a child's faith in God in an entertaining and educational way.

Production included 65 fifteen-minute episodes and six half-hour specials. The award-winning Davey and Goliath was broadcast for 20 years on weekend mornings. It continues to air on select cable outlets.

Davey and Goliath's Snowboard Christmas is a one-hour, action-packed holiday special perfect for the whole family! Produced by the ELCA for broadcast television, this holiday special features the magic of stop-motion animation at its best.

The story focuses on God's love for all children. It introduces two new characters, Yasmeen, a Muslim girl, and Sam, a Jewish boy. Not only do Davey and his friends learn some dazzling snowboard maneuvers, they also learn about understanding and respect for each other.

Join Davey and Goliath as they meet new friends from different cultures and learn the true meaning of Christmas. Check out the latest at www.daveyandgoliath.org

YOUR SNEAK PREVIEW

- Scholastic Inc. has signed a publishing agreement with the ELCA for a series of Davey and Goliath storybooks and a series of coloring and activity books. Watch for them in stores for Spring 2005!
- Vacation Bible School curriculum from Augsburg Fortress features Davey and Goliath's Camp Creation: A Super Gospel Celebration for 2004 and Davey and Goliath's Circus Spectacular for 2005. Look for a brand new theme coming in 2006!
- Davey and Goliath's Devotions, a new magazine from Augsburg Fortress, is ideal for families on the go.
- "Classic" Davey and Goliath programs are being digitally remastered and will be released soon on DVD and video.
- Plans call for the return of a regular Saturday or Sunday morning Davey and Goliath series for television.
